Gerold has a unique ability to bring different players together to find a successful resolution. As one client says, “I would use him for private M&A when you’re trying to get a deal done.”

Chambers Global

For more than 30 years, clients in Canada and the U.S. have turned to Gerold for creative solutions. He advises on a broad range of corporate matters, significant merger and acquisition transactions, and private equity matters.

He regularly advises on both sides of the procurement process in public-private partnership projects. Gerold has developed an extensive gaming practice and advises provincial and private sector lottery and gaming corporations, including the Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation. Clients value his ability to see the big picture and trust Gerold to make smart decisions after weighing the alternatives.

Chair of our Professional Development and Alumni Committees, Gerold devotes considerable time to these important roles. He is also a founding member of the Toronto Opinions Group, which comprises lawyers practising at Canada’s larger firms.
