Business-minded and thorough, Marie-Andrée is an expert in federal and provincial corporate law pertaining to corporations, organizations and partnerships.

She advises both clients and colleagues on matters relating to legal persons, partnerships and not-for-profit organizations. She also assists them in complex due diligence matters in mergers and acquisitions. As head of Corporate Services in Montréal, Marie-Andrée oversees and manages the team that maintains our clients' corporate records.

Marie-Andrée plays a key role in many of our most complex transactions, contributing her expertise to the planning, structuring and implementation of commercial transactions, including public and private mergers and acquisitions, as well as corporate and tax reorganizations.

She assists counsel in other jurisdictions on matters of Québec law, particularly in the areas of corporate procedures, mergers and acquisitions, and reorganizations.

Marie-Andrée does pro bono work for the Trevor William Kids Foundation, assisting youth through sports, education and mentoring.
