

Wilson's business and finance-related experience have prepared him for a career in corporate law.

He looks forward to assisting in complex transactions such as mergers and acquisitions with debt and equity issuance.

In 2022, he captained the Western Mustangs varsity tennis team to an Ontario University Athletics championship.

What fictional character do you identify most with?

I read Homer's the Odyssey and admired the qualities that Odysseus embodies, including: (i) cleverness and strategic thinking, (ii) perseverance, (iii) loyalty and (iv) leadership. These are qualities I attempt to demonstrate on a day-to-day basis.

Tell us something about yourself in six words or less.

Intellectually curious, driven, team player.

Whom do you most admire?

My mother and father. Specifically, their ability to balance work and family commitments, display a high degree of empathy, think on their feet and respond quickly to difficult situations.
