For more than 40 years, Pierre-André acted as lead counsel on complex M&A, project finance and real estate transactions – from development to financings, acquisitions, dispositions and securitizations – both in Canada and internationally.

He was Managing Partner in Montréal from 2000 to June 2017, following which he became counsel. He uses his creative mindset and business acumen to deliver innovative solutions to clients and provide wise guidance to the lawyers at our firm.

Pierre-André serves on the boards of a number of charitable and cultural organizations, including The Claridge Foundation, The Phyllis Lambert Foundation, the Canadian Centre for Architecture, the Blue Metropolis Foundation and the Sauvé Foundation.
