December 14, 2016

Davies Receives Accolades in the Financial Times 2016 North America Innovative Lawyers Report

Davies is honoured to be the sole Canadian firm ranked in the Financial Times 25 Most Innovative North American Law Firms. Recognized in five areas, the firm received more accolades than any other Canadian firm.

In addition, Davies is the only Canadian firm to be recognized in the following three categories: Managing Complexity and Scale; Use of Technology; and Innovation in Unlocking and Delivering Value, receiving a "Standout" award in the third category. Davies is also recognized in Regulatory Work for Clients. To view the full rankings, please visit the Financial Times.

The rankings reflect our focus on finding sophisticated and creative solutions for our clients' most critical business challenges. The FT North America Innovative Lawyers report recognizes market leaders in the legal industry by measuring and rewarding uniqueness and value delivered to clients. Leading firms and in-house teams across North America sent 342 submissions for consideration.