

August 31, 2017

Leaders in Environmental Law

Davies Partners Sarah Powell and Alexandria Pike Recognized by Who's Who Legal

Davies partners Sarah Powell and Alexandria Pike have been recognized in the 2017 edition of Who's Who Legal: Environment.

As a result of this year's research, the guide identifies both lawyers as standout practitioners. Sarah is commended for her "vast expertise in international transactions, particularly in relation to the mining and renewable energy industries." Alexandria is noted for her "strategic approach to risk-management and enforcement matters."

Based on independent surveys of both general counsel and private practice lawyers, the guide highlights over 800 individuals worldwide for their expertise in environment law.