September 11, 2017

Peter Glicklich Honoured as International Tax Contributor of the Year by Bloomberg BNA

Bloomberg BNA has honoured Davies partner Peter Glicklich with a 2017 Author Award for his thought leadership in international taxation.

Peter was named International Tax Contributor of the Year in recognition of his outstanding authorship and numerous contributions to the Tax Management International Journal, including “Lessons from Canada and the WTO: The U.S. Should Embrace a VAT,” “IRS Should Allow QCIV Self-Designation Under FIRPTA,” and “Canada's New Approach to U.S. LLPs and LLLPs.” Peter is also the U.S. contributor to Bloomberg BNA’s Tax Management International Forum.

Bloomberg BNA, an affiliate of Bloomberg L.P., publishes legal, tax, regulatory and business information for professionals. The 2017 Author Awards were presented on August 28 at the company’s reception during the International Fiscal Association Congress in Rio de Janeiro.