Elisa Kearney Joins Cannabis Working Group

Elisa Kearney will be lending her expertise as a member of the newly launched National Cannabis Working Group, an advocacy group established by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce to boost Canada's competitiveness in the sector.

The group, which spans the financial, legal, construction and transportation sectors, will advocate for public policies to help Canada's burgeoning cannabis industry realize its full economic potential.

Named by IPO Edge as the "go-to firm for cannabis," Davies has been at the forefront in supporting clients in all aspects of this fast-growing industry.
