Nine Davies Lawyers Recognized as Leaders in Health Sciences

Lexpert Magazine has named nine Davies partners among Canada's top lawyers in its new 2021 Special Edition: Health Sciences.

From biotech firms to medical device manufacturers, and private equity investors to pharmaceutical giants, we've worked with all industry players to help navigate the daunting business challenges that arise where innovation and regulation intersect, including on the following recent transactions:

Exelon will be the first product commercialized by Knight in its entire territory following its transformative acquisition of Biotoscana Investments S.A., a Luxembourg company listed on the Brazilian stock exchange.
