Davies Listed in GRR 100 for Seventh Straight Year

Davies is once again listed in the Global Restructuring Review (GRR) 100, the top ranking publication for restructuring and insolvency practitioners, as it has been since the publication's inception.

Renowned globally for its innovative and strategic approach, the firm is involved in almost every major restructuring in Canada. Notable examples include acting for Aldo in its successful cross-border CCAA proceedings, which had the most significant cross-border footprint in Canadian restructurings; acting for several partners and creditors of Groupe Sélection in the company's high-profile and contentious restructuring proceedings and acting for Gotham Green in the first successful restructuring of a Canadian cannabis company.

This year alone, Davies' restructuring team is also recognized by:

- Canadian Law Awards Restructuring Deal of the Year (Aldo cross-border restructuring)
- Chambers Canada
- Chambers Global
- IFLR 1000: The Guide to the World's Leading Financial Law Firms, IFLR1000 Canada
- The Legal 500 Canada
- The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory
