

January 8, 2016

The stage seems set for regulators to get out of ruling on shareholder rights plans – Financial Post, National Post

Davies partner Richard Fridman is quoted in a Financial Post article that examines proposed changes to the workings of takeover bids. Fridman notes that the Canadian Securities Administrators' proposed 120-day takeover period represents "a change in the paradigm by Canadian standards."