The Banking Regulation Review, 6th ed.: Canada Chapter

Authors: Scott R. Hyman, Carol D. Pennycook, Derek R.G. Vesey and Nicholas C. Williams

Containing submissions from authors in 48 countries and territories, The Banking Regulation Review is a comprehensive guide to regulatory banking law around the world. A team of Davies lawyers has contributed the Canada chapter, which provides a thorough overview of the country's banking regulation, covering the following:

- the regulatory regime applicable to banks
- prudential regulation
- conduct of business
- funding
- control of banks
- transfer of banking business

The chapter concludes with a review of 2014 banking regulation highlights and developments and a look ahead at 2015.
