

OCTOBER 28, 2022

Round One: Canada Takes a Big Swing At Its Competition Act, with More to Come

Authors: Alysha Manji-Knight and Joshua Hollenberg

In this article originally published in the American Bar Association's Antitrust Magazine Online, Alysha Manji-Knight and Joshua Hollenberg outline significant recent amendments to Canada's Competition Act, including expanded abuse of dominance provisions, a new private right of access and substantially increased administrative monetary penalties.

Download the article.

©2022 by the American Bar Association. Reprinted with permission. All rights reserved. This information or any or portion thereof may not be copied or disseminated in any form or by any means or stored in an electronic database or retrieval system without the express written consent of the American Bar Association.

Key Contact: Alysha Manji-Knight

This information and comments herein are for the general information of the reader and are not intended as advice or opinions to be relied upon in relation to any particular circumstances. For particular applications of the law to specific situations the reader should seek professional advice.