

DECEMBER 7, 2023

Governance Insights: Get Smart on Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Corporate Governance: Key Considerations for Boards of Directors

Authors: Jesany Michel, Alexander Max Jarvie and Aaron J. Atkinson

It has been one year since OpenAI released ChatGPT, arguably catalyzing today's new wave of interest in AI. This surge of interest is driving substantial investments in AI technologies and a heightened urgency to address the use and regulation of AI. In today's environment, where business teams may be motivated to push for rapid adoption of new AI-related technologies, corporate directors mindful of their duty to manage risk may seek to tread more cautiously.

In this edition of Governance Insights, we offer boards of directors and their advisers practical considerations for effectively harnessing the opportunities and managing the risks associated with the use of AI.

Read our insights.

Key Contacts: Patricia L. Olasker, Aaron J. Atkinson, Brett Seifred, Franziska Ruf and Jeffrey Nadler

This information and comments herein are for the general information of the reader and are not intended as advice or opinions to be relied upon in relation to any particular circumstances. For particular applications of the law to specific situations the reader should seek professional advice.