Alexandra takes a tailored approach to clients' complex litigation.

She focuses her practice on commercial litigation, investigations and white collar defence, and constitutional law, representing clients before all levels of court. Her insolvency experience provides additional value to her clients.

Before joining Davies, Alexandra practised litigation at two regional law firms. As a law student, she clerked for the Honourable Justices Lucie Fournier and Danielle Turcotte at the Superior Court of Québec in Montréal.

REPRESENTATIVE WORK

Association for the rights of household and farm workers

Acting for the plaintiff Association for the rights of household and farm workers in seeking authorization to institute (certification) a class action that would challenge the constitutionality of "closed" work permits issued by the government of Canada, which restrict the ability of migrant workers to change employers and makes them vulnerable to several forms of exploitation, abuse, and human and labour rights violations, and to seek compensation on behalf of these migrants.
