“Our goal is to develop innovative HR strategies that will optimize the productivity, creativity and strength of the Davies team. A team that strives for excellence is key to the success of our firm and, in turn, the success of our clients.”

An integral member of the Davies Human Resources department for more than 20 years, Anna brings a wealth of professional experience and knowledge to her role. Her expertise includes developing and implementing human resource programs and policies, including our firm’s benefits, health and safety and wellness programs, as well as managing our human resources information systems. She also plays an active role in our business continuity planning and numerous in-house activities. Leading both the human resources and payroll teams, Anna is responsible for attracting, fostering and retaining talent, and building a culture of professionalism, agility and success at all levels of the firm.
