“In-depth legal research – getting the law right for our clients – is at the heart of what we do. Our team of professionals support our lawyers’ legal work with the most comprehensive and accurate information. And we keep them up to date on issues and trends affecting our clients’ businesses and industries.”

With more than 25 years in the information and legal industries, Gaye provides leadership and strategic input for our firm through her role as Director of Library Services. Gaye and her team manage the firm's legal and business information resources and ensure those resources are accessible, relevant and current. Gaye and her team provide a vital contribution to our delivery of top-tier legal services.
