“Our priority is not only attracting top talent, but also cultivating the skills of our lawyers and encouraging their professional growth at every stage of their careers. Developing and fostering a team of agile, highly skilled lawyers are integral to the strength and success of our firm.”

As our Montréal Director of Legal Recruiting & Professional Development, Nanci plays a significant role in recruiting, mentoring and training the next generation of Davies lawyers. By creating and strategically implementing a range of career development programs, she helps to build and manage our dynamic legal team in Montréal.

Nanci is the co-chair of our Montréal Student Committee and Student/Stagiaire Evaluation Committee and a key member of our Lawyer Evaluation, Career Development, Professional Development and Diversity & Inclusion Committees.

Nanci brings a unique understanding of the legal profession to her role. Before joining our firm, she practised business and insurance coverage litigation at a leading firm in New York.
