

March 14, 2022

Ian Caines Joins Davies Tax Group in Toronto

We are pleased to welcome Ian Caines as a tax partner in our Toronto office.

Ian brings nearly 15 years of experience advising clients on domestic and international tax law, including mergers and acquisitions, financings, reorganizations, restructurings and investment products. With a background in mathematics and technology, as well as experience working at a technology startup, he provides tailored tax counsel to support the growth and success of clients in the emerging technology market.

Ian's expertise complements our leading tax team, strengthening our ability to provide custom solutions to our clients' most complex tax challenges.

Davies' tax team is recognized by Chambers Global and International Tax Review as a global leader in the areas of Tax, Transactional Tax and Tax Disputes. Learn more about our work.