The IBA 2025 Toronto City Guide

It was a pleasure to connect with international colleagues at IBA 2024 in Mexico City last week. We look forward to welcoming attendees to Toronto next year, when it will be the host destination for IBA 2025.

To help conference attendees from out of town to prepare, we created the Davies IBA 2025 Toronto City Guide. This guide will be regularly updated over the next 12 months as new event information becomes available.

If you would like to save the guide to your cellphone's home page for quick reference, please find instructions below:
