Two Davies Partners Selected to Private Client Global Elite Directory

Traduction en cours.

Elie Roth has been named to the Global Elite list and Ray Rubin has been named a Rising Leader in the Private Client Global Elite Directory.

Elie is trusted counsel to many high-net-worth individuals and family offices. His leading practice concentrates on all aspects of private client matters, including advising on domestic and international estate and personal tax planning, trusts and estates, corporate reorganizations and charity law matters. He has extensive experience advising clients on cross-border transactions, structuring non-resident investment into Canada and outbound investments by Canadian residents.

Ray is a partner in the Private Client and Family Office practices. Focusing on wealth management and preservation, she assists clients in strategic tax and succession planning, including cross-border planning. She advises on trusts, wills, powers of attorney, marriage contracts and charitable giving. Her clients, including high-net-worth individuals, family businesses, trust companies and charitable entities, value her expertise and her ability to present complex information simply.

Private Client Global Directory is a highly respected global directory of the world's top private client and trust and estates litigation talent, as well as rising stars within the industry, as chosen by their peers in the industry.
