Ahmed is known for his calm, strategic approach and ability to navigate high-pressure transactions.

Ahmed is a corporate lawyer whose practice includes mergers and acquisitions, general corporate advisory and high-growth companies. He has acted for Canadian and international acquirers, sellers, founders, investors and venture capitalists across a wide range of sectors.

Ahmed guides clients through every stage of the deal cycle, from formation and early-stage financings to structuring, due diligence, deal negotiation and post-closing matters – delivering pragmatic, commercially-grounded advice.

Prior to joining Davies, Ahmed worked in the Toronto office of a large international law firm.
