Clients depend on Anisha’s diligent and strategic approach to dispute resolution.

Anisha’s practice is focused on commercial litigation, including breach of contract, negligence and other matters across a range of industries. She is known as a fierce advocate for her clients, which include large and medium public and private companies and high-net-worth families, in Canada and around the world. Anisha also acts in competition litigation matters, insolvency and restructuring matters and defends clients facing securities and price-fixing class actions. She has developed a reputation for being highly responsive and trustworthy with the ability to craft persuasive arguments.

Representative Work

Google LLC, Alphabet Inc. and Google Canada Corporation
Successfully defended Google LLC, Alphabet Inc. and Google Canada Corporation in the first ever application brought before the Canadian Competition Tribunal by a private party for leave to proceed with a private claim on behalf of millions of Canadians and Canadian businesses under novel amendments to the Competition Act that came into effect in June 2025. The application and proposed claim concern allegations of abuse of dominance in the provision of internet search engine services as well as allegedly anticompetitive agreements between Google and Apple Inc.

FTI Consulting Canada Inc.
Acted for FTI Consulting Canada Inc., as the neutral, court-appointed monitor of Imperial Tobacco Canada Limited and affiliates, in Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act and Chapter 15 U.S. Bankruptcy Code proceedings involving a historic C$32.5-billion settlement of tobacco-related liabilities.

Barrick Mining Corporation
Acting for Barrick Gold Corporation and certain of its former and existing officers and directors in defence of multi-billion dollar class actions in Ontario and Québec alleging breaches of the public disclosure requirements under provincial securities legislation concerning Barrick's Pascua Lama mining project in Chile and Argentina.
