With more than 19 years of experience, Brigitte heads the firm's Linguistic Services group. Lawyers consult Brigitte on all files requiring legal translation and document review.

As a lawyer-revisor, she reviews the translation of legal documents relating to securities law and commercial law – namely, securities disclosure documents that must be filed with Canadian securities commissions – but also the translation of a broad range of other legal documents.

Additionally, she is a member of the firm's Francization Committee in Montréal.
