"Our focus is on understanding what drives our clients' decisions and translating insights into strategies that move their business forward. Championing the client perspective means anticipating needs and building partnerships rooted in trust and tangible results."

As Chief Client Officer in our Toronto office, Carla leads initiatives to strengthen client relationships, drive business growth and advance Davies' client-first strategy. She focuses on developing and implementing strategies that enhance client experience, integrate market insights and align with firmwide priorities.

With a background spanning private practice, in-house counsel and executive leadership roles, Carla brings a business-minded perspective to client development and relationship management. She works closely with firm leadership, partners and colleagues to anticipate client needs and deliver tailored, practical solutions.

Her strategic and collaborative approach helps ensure that Davies continues to build enduring partnerships that create value for clients and the firm alike.
