Commercially minded, Jacob navigates complex transactions to help clients achieve their objectives.

Jacob has acted for strategic and private equity clients on private M&A, including cross-border transactions. He has also assisted on commercial agreements.

Prior to joining Davies, Jacob was an associate at a Canadian law firm. During his studies at McGill University, he served as co-president of the McGill Business Law Association and as a caseworker with the Compass Startup Legal Clinic, where he assisted early-stage entrepreneurs on corporate and governance matters.
