Expertise
Tax Disputes

Bar Admissions
Ontario, 2011

Molly relies on her business acumen to identify and communicate tax and financial risks to her clients.

With a practice focused on tax litigation, she advises clients on tax controversies at all levels of taxation, in and outside of court, including reviews, audits and administrative objections. A natural problem solver, she is able to quickly home in on the key issues and find creative solutions.

Molly is a frequent speaker on tax litigation topics and privilege, including solicitor-client privilege and common-interest privilege.
