Our goal is to support the firm's clients by better anticipating their needs and ambitions so that we can deliver strategic, innovative solutions. By focusing on excellent service, our clients' priorities stay at the centre of everything we do – ensuring the best possible outcomes.

Nicolas brings more than two decades of experience in business development, marketing and communications to his role as Chief Client Officer in our Montréal office. A dynamic leader, he drives the firm's client-centric strategy by identifying and capitalizing on growth opportunities, deepening existing relationships and fostering innovation. Excelling at transformational projects and navigating change, Nicolas cultivates a culture of growth and forward-thinking. He brings both strategic vision and proven execution to the client, industry and market initiatives he spearheads. Nicolas also serves as a trusted adviser, providing dedicated and seasoned support and guidance to our partners lawyers and client teams, ensuring their success in an evolving marketplace.

Prior to joining Davies, Nicolas worked in national law firms and prominent investment companies in Québec, leading transformational projects in client development, market analysis and strategic planning.

A board director for over ten years, Nicolas currently sits on the board of directors of Collège Stanislas. He also carries the designation of Chartered Director (ASC/ C.Dir.).
