More About Me

Is there something about you that we would be surprised to learn?

One thing that might surprise others is that I've worked several hands-on, service-oriented jobs, including roles at places like hardware stores, amusement parks, childcare centres and hospitals. These experiences have been a significant part of shaping who I am. Working in those environments taught me discipline and crisis management. In many ways, they have grounded my work ethic and interpersonal approach just as much as my academic and professional experiences.

Share a quote that is meaningful to you.

"Do not miss the forest for the trees." I like this quote because it reminds me to always keep in touch with the why behind my daily tasks. Even when life becomes increasingly demanding and I find myself blinded by the trees, I look to the forest to reconnect with my purpose and goals.

Whom do you most admire?

I deeply admire my mother, who immigrated to this country and raised me as a single parent. She often took on everything at home and worked tirelessly to ensure that I could devote myself fully to my studies and professional responsibilities. Her resilience, sacrifice and unwavering belief in me have been the foundation of everything I have achieved. I am here because of her.
