More About Me

What common myth about Davies would you want to dispel?

That a firm with Davies' standard of excellence must be a stiff or intimidating place to work. In reality, it feels like the opposite! The same culture that drives high performance is what makes it such a fun and collaborative environment. The people here are genuinely invested in each other's success, and that is something I'm really looking forward to being part of.

What fictional character do you identify most with?

Kevin McCallister from Home Alone. He is a kid left to fend for himself, but he stays calm under pressure, thinks several steps ahead and comes up with creative solutions on the fly with the resources available to him. Like Kevin, I'd like to think I can hold my own when things get a little chaotic!

If you could have your own talk show, who would you invite as your first guest?

If I had my own talk show, my first guest would be Shaquille O'Neal. On top of his incredible basketball career in the NBA, his post-career ventures are equally interesting. Not only is he able to turn anything into a good laugh, but he has become a genius investor, a DJ and even a TV personality.
