DAVIES

Jane Chen
Student

Office
Montréal

Tel
438.817.9571

Email
jchen@dwpv.com

Jane's ability to think critically and draw connections between varied disciplines will be beneficial to her development as a lawyer.

Jane finds corporate law intellectually stimulating and rewarding. Accompanying businesspeople through important milestones and contributing to the success of big projects excites her.

Insights

Davies Welcomes 10 New Stagiaires
Jun 8, 2026

Education

Collège Jean-de-Brébeuf

Law School

McGill University

More About Me

What surprised you most about Davies during the interview process?

I was impressed by how well everyone knew each other at the firm, from summer students to senior partners.

Aside from your studies, what else do you like to spend time doing?

I enjoy testing new recipes, spending an afternoon in a coffee shop or bookstore, going to art exhibitions and watching a good movie.

What are the essential qualities of a good lawyer? How do you display those qualities?

I believe successful lawyers are good listeners and eager learners. I aim to display these qualities by following my curiosity and by asking questions – on people and subjects alike.