More About Me

What surprised you most about Davies during the interview process?

Everyone at Davies, from the senior partners down to the students, was warm and welcoming. The interviews were conversational and the discussions ranged from the legal field to trading guitar tips.

Share a quote that is meaningful to you.

A smooth sea never made for a skillful sailor.

Is there an organization that means a lot to you?

I am currently an executive on the Jewish Law Students Association. I am proud to contribute to the rich history of Jewish life at McGill and in Montréal.
