More About Me

Is there something about you we would be surprised to learn?

I think something that might surprise people about me is that I really enjoy singing. When I was younger, I was actually part of a boy band. It was a great experience and quite different from what I do now. I have always been very into music and enjoy listening to a wide variety of genres. My go-to song to sing is “Castle on a Hill” by Ed Sheeran.

If you could have your own talk show, who would you invite as your first guest?

I would invite Caitlin Clark as my first guest. She is someone who has completely transformed women’s basketball and significantly increased its popularity, at both the college level and in the WNBA. She is not only extremely talented, but also remains very composed and continues to perform at a high level despite the constant pressure and attention she receives. She is a strong role model for younger athletes, including girls like my younger sister.
