More About Me

Why did you choose Davies?

The level of responsibility that I will get early on in my career drew me to Davies. Moreover, the firm embodies entrepreneurship, as it gives you the freedom to shape your own career and practice.

Is there an organization that means a lot to you? And how are you involved?

The Air Cadet League of Canada, which is a Canadian national youth program for young individuals aged 12 to 18. It helped me acquire leadership skills, become less shy and volunteer in the community. It’s a free program that truly helps you become a better person.

Whom do you most admire?

My parents. They came from nothing and sacrificed everything to be able to provide a good home for their children. I want to repay them one day.
