DAVIES

Léa Proulx
Student

Office
Montréal

Tel
514.841.6400

Open-minded, versatile and determined, Léa aspires to bring a human-centric approach to her future legal practice.

Léa is eager to explore the different practice areas and contribute to Davies' success.

Education

Collège André-Grasset

Law School

Université de Montréal

More About Me

What are the essential qualities of a good lawyer?

In my opinion, adaptability and teamwork are the essential qualities of a good lawyer. The practice of law comes with its share of unexpected challenges and tight deadlines, which require the ability to react quickly and effectively. Also, since cases are often complex, teamwork allows us to leverage everyone's strengths and diverse perspectives.

Why did you choose Davies?

I chose Davies for its exceptional learning potential and the quality of its team. It was important for me to start my legal career in a highly stimulating environment, surrounded by passionate individuals who are willing to take the time to guide me and answer my questions. Furthermore, working within leaner-sized teams offers the chance to quickly gain exposure to high-profile cases and make a tangible impact right from the start of my career.

Who do you most admire?

My great aunt. Born in the 1920s, she left her family home to study at the École des Beaux-Arts. She later became an interior designer and even founded the Marc-Aurèle Fortin Museum. I admire her for her boldness and determination. As a woman, she forged her own path at a time when opportunities were sparse. Her journey taught me to be fearless and not limit myself in my ambitions.