More About Me

What are you most looking forward to during your time at Davies?

I am excited to engage with complex cases and learn even more from the mentors who have already shaped my time at law school. I also cannot wait to discover Davies traditions – and start some of my own!

Whom have you learned the most from personally or professionally?

My peers at law school. I've practiced active listening, clear and concise argumentation and intellectual rigour in the hallways.

Aside from your studies, what else do you like spending time doing?

I am a third-generation jazz and classical singer. In my spare time, I play music with my loved ones.
