More About Me

Why did you choose Davies?

I chose Davies because it offers the perfect balance between a culture of excellence and a strong sense of humility. I was genuinely impressed by the passion, professionalism and commitment each person showed toward the firm's success. It was clear that excellence at Davies is both a shared standard and a collective mindset.

If you could have your own talk show, who would you invite as your first guest?

I would invite Sadhguru, who is a famous Indian guru known for his public speaking and books focused on inner well-being, self-awareness and living consciously. I am intrigued by the level of control he seems to have over his mind, and I would love the chance to ask him questions directly and learn more about how he developed that kind of clarity and focus.

Where was the last place you travelled?

Greece! Fun fact: aside from my large extended family in Montréal (there are over 50 of us!), I have another 50 relatives in Greece. I’m basically the real-life version of My Big Fat Greek Wedding!
