DAVIES

Victor Chu
Student

Office
Toronto

Tel
416.863.0900

Victor approaches legal issues as complex puzzles and values passion, curiosity and clear communication in helping others prevent or resolve problems.

Victor is interested in experiencing all practice areas, but is particularly drawn to competition, antitrust and foreign investment due to the blend of legal research, business research, advocacy and regulatory work.

Education

Western University
University of Toronto

Law School

University of Ottawa

More About Me

Why did you choose to work with Davies?

I chose to work with Davies because of the generalist approach to student training, and for the opportunity to learn from the amazing people I met along the way. I have always learned the most when I have been truly immersed in the work I am doing, and Davies presented the unique opportunity to take on real responsibility on files at a level that students at other firms are unlikely to get.

If you were not a lawyer, what career would you have chosen?

If I were not a lawyer, I would have loved to have become a professor. The qualities that drew me to the legal profession, such as research, education and mentorship, are also at the heart of academia to an extent, and a career as a professor could have been very rewarding as well.

Would you rather live in the ocean or on the moon?

I would rather live on the moon. The view would be much nicer. Long-term living in low gravity would probably not be good for my body. However, I would be able to hit a golf ball extremely far.